FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

23rd ANNUAL DELAWARE WOMEN'S CONFERENCE
2007 IMPACT YOUR COMMUNITY AWARD

Award Luncheon March 3, 2007 at the University of Delaware
Sponsored by the Delaware Women's Conference

Newark, DE – The 23rd Annual Delaware Women's Conference, a daylong event of workshops and presentations exploring the many facets of womanhood, announces the opening of nominations for the 2007 Impact Your Community Award. Over 400 women are expected to attend the award presentation held in Clayton Hall at the University of Delaware.

The Delaware Women's Conference 2007 Impact Your Community Award is a unique opportunity to recognize one woman who has made a significant contribution to the development and improvement of the Delaware community.

The Award Review Committee will leverage a blind judging process and will utilize the below criteria to select the winner.

- Impact: The nominee should be someone who has made a difference in the lives of Delaware residents.
- Involvement: The nominee is committed and focused on giving to the community and gaining from the experience. Nominations can include accomplishments within an organization(s) or be unrelated to an organization.
- Community Needs: The nominee's services must address human service or civil needs/issues.
- Leadership: The nominee should have proven success in leading and mobilizing members of the community.
- Achievement: The nomination must reflect accomplishments achieved on a voluntary, not employment basis.
- Inspiration: The nominee should be seen as a role model to others in their organization or community.

Completed nomination forms are to be mailed or emailed to the following address by February 14, 2007.
