DELAWARE CHILDREN'S MUSEUM ELECTS NEW BOARD OF DIRECTORS

(February 15, 2011—Wilmington, DE) The Delaware Children's Museum (DCM) recently elected its 2011 Board of Directors. The newest members are: Julia Caslin, a Senior Vice President and leadership development executive for Bank of America's Deposits & Card Products; Carin Mueller Rollins, Principal of CR Consulting, LLC, and 5AM Ventures, both biotech finance consultancy firms; and, Ronald A. Street, Principal of NorthStar Museums, the firm which successfully managed the construction and exhibit fabrication of the DCM.

Says DCM's Board President William Smith, "Julia, Carin and Ron will be great additions to our Board of Directors. We are pleased that Bank of America has connected us with Julia—she will be an incredible asset to the DCM as we enter year two and undergo strategic planning and human resource development activities. Carin has been a cheerleader for the DCM for several years, and brings to the table a great mind for finances and startup. Ron knows the DCM in and out and we are fortunate to have his expertise at our fingertips."

These new members join the existing DCM board consisting of: Board President William Smith, Environmental Alliance; Vice President of Board Governance, Rachel A. Dwares, Esq., Connolly Bove Lodge & Hutz LLP; Vice President of Resource Development Andy Podolsky, Gardner Lewis Asset Management; Treasurer Francis J. Lucey, Jr., Riverfront Development Corporation; Marci Aerenson; Rick Deadwyler, Jr., DuPont Government Affairs; Jeff Dillman, Atlantic Trust Private Wealth Management; Roberta Michnick Golinkoff, Ph.D., University of Delaware; Tyrone Jones, AstraZeneca; George Meldrum, Nemours; Tiffany Randall, Sallie Mae; Karen Rose; Laura Lubin Rossi, JPMorgan Chase; Kent Smith; Santosh Viswanathan, Willis Ford Inc.; Clinton W. Walker, Esq., Barclays Bank of Delaware; and, Julie W. Van Blarcom, Chief Executive Officer, Ex Officio.

ABOUT THE DELAWARE CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

The Delaware Children's Museum's mission is to inspire children to explore, discover and celebrate the power of their potential. As Delaware's only museum dedicated entirely to children, the DCM underscores the value of play in the learning process, especially as it sparks interest in math, science and technology for children aged 1-12. The values that drive the mission and define the direction and approach DCM takes toward the visitor experience include: creativity, fun, wonder, learning, stewardship, diversity, respect and cooperation. A 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, the DCM relies on donations to deliver valuable services to the community, including subsidized admission.

The Delaware Children's Museum is generously sponsored by: State of Delaware, Riverfront Development Corporation, New Castle County, JPMorgan Chase Foundation, AstraZeneca, DuPont, Longwood Foundation, Welfare Foundation, AAA, Bank of America, Barclays, City of Wilmington, Connolly Bove Lodge & Hutz, LLP, Delaware College Investment Plan, Delaware Community Foundation, Delaware Today, Environmental Alliance, Exelon, ING DIRECT, The Laffey-McHugh Foundation, Marmot Foundation, MySherpa, Nemours, NRG Energy, PSEG, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, LLP & Affiliates, Shone Lumber, Valero, Wilmington Trust, and W.
